If you had a Jewish family member living in London 1914-1918, or are interested in learning more about a Heritage Lottery Fund project to find and preserve stories of London Jews in the First World War, please join us at Chigwell and Hainault Synagogue, on Sunday 14 January, for an explanatory talk and the opportunity to chat to the team.

We'd like to hear your family stories and find out if you have photographs, medals, letters or other memorabilia relating to the 1914-1918 period. We also welcome volunteers to help us with research and the uploading of information onto the new website www.jewsfww.london

To RSVP or for further information email contactus@jewsfww.london or just come on the day.

Everyone is welcome.
