

Israel in Redbridge JCC Newsletter November 2018

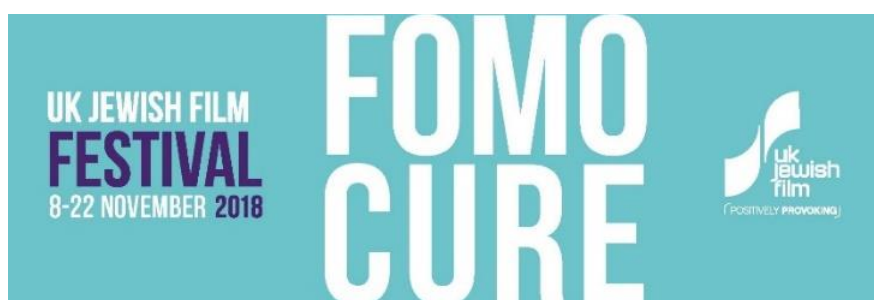

Hello everyone,

This November the theme of my newsletter is films!

JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

I have been informed that there are not many tickets left so I recommend buying tickets as soon as possible

In addition, we are looking for 2 volunteers who will help with registration at the event. If you volunteer for this event you will get a free ticket for the evening. Please let me know if this is something you would like to do.

THE TESTAMENT

DIR: Amichai Greenberg | Drama | Israel, Austria 2017 | Hebrew, German, English and Yiddish with English subs | 93 mins
CAST: Ori Pfeffer, Rivka Gur, Hagit Dasberg

As he investigates a hidden Holocaust-era atrocity in Austria, Yoel, a world-renowned Israeli historian, is unearthing a painful truth close to home. An accidental discovery of classified documents reveals that Yoel's mother, an Orthodox Jewish woman, has lived under an assumed identity for decades. Plunged into professional and personal crisis, Yoel starts questioning everything he thought he knew about his life and his family. An engrossing thriller from first-time director Amichai Greenberg.

BUDAPEST NOIR

DIR: Éva Gárdos | Drama | Hungary 2017 | Hungarian with English subs | 95 mins
CAST: Krisztián Kolovratnik, Kata Dobó, Zsolt Anger

Director Éva Gárdos revisits film noir classics such as Chinatown in this stylish reimagining of Budapest in 1936, shortly before Hungary turned fascist. Investigating the mysterious death of a Jewish woman, charismatic reporter Zsigmond dives into the capital's underworld. In its brothels and boxing rings and amidst corrupted politicians and gangsters, he finds a city on the verge of eruption. A stunning glimpse into Hungarian urban life on the eve of the Second World War and a beautiful homage to the golden era of cinema.

Current events

I can't end the email without reference to the anti-Semitic attack on Jews in Pittsburgh and our heart goes out to the people who were hurt and lost their lives in this tragedy. Over the weekend a rocket hit Sderot and all the towns around Gaza, this is not simple time for Jewish people around the world.

I am here for any question you may have and please send me an email me if you are interested in doing activity on any of the topics.
